ICEWEB CONTINUES TO BUILD FEDERAL CHANNEL FOOTPRINT

Federal Partner Receives Add-on Order to Migrate Mission Critical Data

STERLING, Va. – (PR NEWSWIRE) – September 15, 2010 – IceWEB™, Inc. (OTCBB:IWEB), www.icweb.com, a leading provider of Unified Data Storage and building blocks for cloud storage networks, announced today that the Company has received a 96 terabyte storage system order from Channel Partner Honeywell Federal Manufacturing & Technologies, for use by a United States Government Agency.

The customer will utilize the IceWEB 5000 storage platform to migrate mission critical data from a retiring tier one legacy storage system. This follow-on order will be deployed in the current quarter and will feature our 5000HR high availability cluster configuration.

“The 5000HR will provide our customer with superior performance, reliability and savings,” said Tim McNamee, IceWEB Federal Channel Manager. “Our unified storage platform meets the challenging demands of managing structured and unstructured data in complex federal network environments.”

The IceWEB 5000 is configured as a fault tolerant, high availability data clustering storage platform as mandated by federal guidelines. Each system is configured with 48 – 2TB 6Gb SAS drives, with dual active-active clustered controllers. Additionally, two 10Gbs Ethernet and four 8GB Fibre channel interfaces are included.

“It is great to see our federal partner receiving orders for additional storage,” concluded McNamee.
